

BlueCare Connect Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

The basics of BlueCare Connect

What is BlueCare Connect?

BlueCare Connect is like a single front door to all of your health plan benefits: plan information, health and wellness programs, health reimbursement account or health savings account (if applicable), care management services, and customer support. Everything is integrated and accessible online, on the app, or over the phone via our Care Guides. Registered nurses and health coaches are also available to answer questions and provide support.

Did BlueCare Connect replace myBCBSRI?

Yes, all member accounts—except members with Medicare plans—moved from the myBCBSRI member portal to BlueCare Connect. All you need to do is register. (See the Registration section below.)

Note: You can still find claims from previous years in BlueCare Connect. See the View ID cards and claims section below to learn how.

What is a Care Guide and what do they do?

Care Guides provide customer service support and can:

- answer benefits and claims questions
- provide coverage and cost-sharing information
- locate quality doctors, providers, and low-cost care options
- schedule appointments for you

They can also explain health programs that align with your health goals and needs and help you enroll.

To chat with or call a Care Guide, select the Get Help Icon at the top of your screen.

You can also call the phone number on the back of your member ID card to speak with a Care Guide. To view your plan's Care Guide hours of operation, go to bcbsri.com/contact.

Why can't I see the same details on my spouse's claims as my own?

- Select Privacy Controls.
 - Check the box to grant permission for another member to see claims.

Secondary coverage information will be available later in 2026.

Wellness with BlueCare Connect

How can I work with a BlueCare Connect nurse or health coach?

Registered nurses are available within BlueCare Connect at no additional cost to help address acute health concerns, identify urgent health needs, and help members find care. Contact a Care Guide to learn more about speaking with a registered nurse.
